

Recovery Network of Northern Kentucky

Recovery Network of Northern Kentucky (RNNK) is an organization operated by persons living with mental illness. The RNNK operates under the non-profit status of the Mental Health Association of Northern Kentucky. The RNNK serves the eight county area of Northern KY. offering services to persons living with mental illnesses.

What we offer:

- Resume preparation
- Computer training: typing, operating systems (Windows 95/98), Office 2000, desktop publishing (Adobe, Publisher), etc.
- Microsoft Certification Training in Word & Excel
- A personalized vocational survey with Internet connections to job listings
- Computer simulation interviews
- Free consumer e-mail
- Listings of psychiatrists and therapists, medical providers and dentists accepting Medicare/Medicaid.
- Social activities provided by the Friendship Club
- Support groups
- Information on low cost housing vacancies, medications/diagnoses, support groups, educational assistance, agency referrals
- Join an Art Club and display your work.
- Check out books, watch videos and listen to tapes from the Resource Library.
- Advocacy services for persons living with mental illnesses and the homeless.
- A member of the Employer Network under Ticket to Work.
- Comprehensive web page with display of consumer art for sale (<http://rnnk.org>)

605 Madison Avenue
Covington, KY 41011
Phone: 859-431-2134